The income of all events flows back into the projects we support!

Several exhibitions will take place in every country. All artists agree that 50% of the income generated through sales and/or auctions of artworks flows into the project AFF, supporting the vision and ideals represented by Artists for Freedom. All artworks must be available for the exhibitions and be able to be sold or auctioned. Artists do not have to be present at opening/auctions, but we welcome you from the heart to be present so that we can express our appreciation personally.

Delivery/Shipping:

Please note all transport costs to exhibition venues inside your country are the responsibility of the artists. All other transport costs eg chosen artwork for "A World of freedom" are the responsibility of the project. Works must be sent in reusable packaging

Exhibitionplace and time:

Publicity

The AFF project may use images of artwork accepted into the exhibition for publicity purposes. Perhaps artworks will be chosen for the cover design of invitation for the exhibition. They will also be featured on our website and different networks. Artists agree to allow reproduction of their digital files and/or photographs taken of their art for educational, publicity and archival purposes.
